

Indigenous Knowledge Institute

IKI Fellows Program

Application

1. Applicant Details.

First Name		Family Name
Address
Email Address
Phone Number/s

2. Tell us about your cultural background and leadership responsibilities.

(1,000 words max)

3. Tell us about your interest in research and any research-related work.

(1,000 words max)

4. Describe your proposed research idea.

(1,200 words max)

Include in your answer responses to the following:

- Project overview (What is the overall aim or vision for your project?)
- Approach (How will you conduct your project?)
- Stakeholders and beneficiaries (Who will your project serve?)

5. How will this Fellowship help you achieve your aims?

(1,000 words max)

6. What support does your research idea require?

(1,000 words max)

- (Money, networks, in-kind contributions, etc.)

7. ATTACHMENTS

1. Your Curriculum Vitae outlining any relevant:

- Education and Qualifications,
- Employment History,
- Executive and Board Memberships,
- Indigenous Organisation Memberships and Community Service,
- Publications and Creative Works,
- Public Speaking and Conference Presentations,
- Research Project Participation,
- Contact Details for Two Referees

2. Reference letter from a partner academic within the University of Melbourne (Optional).

SUBMISSION ADVICE

Please email your application documents to indigenous-knowledge@unimelb.edu.au.

Thank you for your interest in the IKI Fellows Program.
If you have any follow up questions or concerns, please email indigenous-knowledge@unimelb.edu.au